CLERK CAUSES TROUBLE.

FORGETS TO POST WITHDRAWAL OF ALTUDA FROM FIFTH RACE.

Layers Make Long's Filly Favorite and Betting Progresses for Ten Minutes—Cavanagh Orders All Money Wagered on Altuda Refunded.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—The failure of the clerk of the scales to properly post the withdrawal of Altuda from the fifth race caused a deal of excitement and trouble in the betting ring today, to say nothing of the disarrangement of the original books of the layers. The layers began business on the fifth race in the belief that Altuda would be a starter and she was at once made the favorite. For ten minutes the betting progressed with thousands being sent in on George J. Long's filly. At this stage the surprising announcement was made that Altuda would not start and that she had been withdrawn at 3:20 o'clock.

The ring was immediately thrown into a panic, business suspended and the greatest excitement prevailed throughout the entire enclosure. A mob of anxious bettors, who had backed the favorite, immediately sought out ring manager Cavanagh and demanded the return of their money. Mr. Cavanagh, following an established precedent, acted promptly and notified each bookmaker to refund all wagers made on Altuda. The independent layers acquiesced without a murmur, but the members of the Metropolitan Turf Association demurred and on their own account declared all bets off.

Secretary Eurlocker, acting temporarily as clerk of the scales in place of Algernon Daingerfield, who had assumed these duties with the retirement of C. Cornehlsen, who is ill, explained that William Kain, assistant clerk of the scales, whose duty it was to post the declarations, had failed to do so.

For the first time in ten days ideal weather conditions prevailed. The track, however, had suffered from recent frequent wettings and proved unexpectedly deep and uncertain. The Seneca Selling Stakes, at six furlongs for three-year-olds, was the only stake fixture that adorned a fairly attractive card of six races. In this H. B. Duryea scored another of his rare successes with the improving Ben Strome colt, Ben Ban, which in the race showed himself to be improving and capable of beating a better class of horses than opposed him today.

The opening handicap at seven furlongs far over-

The opening handicap at seven furlongs far overshadowed the stake feature in both interest and importance. The best sprinters in training were here engaged, including Tiptoe, Sir Lynnewood, Inquisitor, Aeronaut, Peter Sterling and others, August Belmont's grand filly won a brilliant race all the way, with the lightly weighted Sir Lynnewood a close second and the improving Sir Russell a fast coming third. Inquisitor throughout held a mean position on the inside, where the exceedingly deep footing anchored him. The crack western colt, Peter Sterling, finished running two feet to the leader's one and, notwithstanding that he ran no better than fifth, his effort evoked expressions of approval from the critics.

Sonoma Belle, which is showing a return to her very best form of a season or two ago, won the mile and three-sixteenths selling easily from a band of moderately fast platers. Macy Jr., the favorite, was the victim of such an exceedingly bad looking ride that it attracted the attention of almost every observant spectator on the grounds. Charlatan has not yet come into his own. He will in due time with the advent of the customary hood adornment, for instance. Miller rode the Gum horse today for all there was in him. He displayed plenty of speed, but sulked when called upon in the stretch.

Some sterling youngsters met in the handicap at five and a half furlongs. Montgomery, with Miller in the saddle, was suddenly transformed into a probable stake horse. His victory was the easiest kind imaginable and many declared the Pessara colt to be in the same class with Fountainblue. Hickory, the full brother of the noted Eugenia Burch, was a hot tip, but performed disappoint-

Tommy Griffin's Eudora won the fifth race. A lot of money was lost on Dulcinea.

The downfall of the odds-on favorite, Johnstown, in the closing race for maidens, at a mile, capped the climax to a very unsatisfactory day's racing, particularly to jockey Miller's large army of adherents. The Cincinnati horseman, H. M. Ziegler, scored his second victory of the season with Royal Scot, which carried a big stable commission at Inerative odds.

HACKMEN CHEAT THE TRACK.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—The discovery was made today that the hackmen engaged in carrying racetrack patrons inside the grounds were using forged admission cards, thus evading the tax of 75 cents imposed on all rigs that desire to enter the inclosure. Hereafter a different colored card will be issued daily.

WEIR IS NOW HANDLING WHIMSICAL.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—Whimsical, Mortiboy and others that have been running in the name of their trainer, T. J. Gaynor, all summer will be handled in future by Frank Weir, the latter taking charge Wednesday morning by order of the owner. One of the first things Weir did was to declare Whimsical out of all her engagements.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE SARATOGA CUP.

Cup races are not so frequent as they were twenty-five years ago, but they are every bit as popular and the meeting of two such cracks as Go Between and Sir Huca over such a long route as a mile and three-quarters will be easily the star attraction at Saratoga this afternoon. The Saratoga Cup is the oldest fixture of the kind of this country and its decision has been marked by some tremendous contests, most memorable of which was the great race in which Springbok and Preakness ran a dead heat in time that stood as a record for two miles and a quarter for more than twenty years. Another remarkable race that drew all of New York's racing population to Saratoga was that in which Harry Bassett defeated Longfellow, the latter breaking down in the race. Longfellow had beaten Kingfisher for the Cup the year previous, despite the fact that Kingfisher covered the first mile in 1:40 flat, it being the first time a mile had ever been run so fast in public in this country. The condensed history of the event is as follows:

TORONTO STAKES FILL WELL.

Toronto, Ont., August 24.—The entries to the stakes to be run at the coming autumn meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club have filled excellently, affording splendid proof of the popularity of the Toronto fixtures and appreciation on behalf of owners of the liberality of the program. Capital sport is in store for lovers of racing at Woodbine Park on Saturday, September 15, and the six succeeding week days. Among the owners who have not recently raced at Toronto, the names of Messrs. George Hendrie and E. Corrigan will be found, both liberal subscribers. Alex Shields has entered Ormoude's Right and Stimulant in the stakes for three-year-olds and upward, and E. R. Thomas has put Lieber in the Toronto Autumn Cup and Ontario Jockey Club Cup.

Canadian owned horses are increasing and loom up well in the different events. Horses will be here from Saratoga and also the best of those now racing on the Canadian circuit. The program of the meeting, which will contain the entries of these stakes, will be issued within the next three or four days. The Toronto Autumn Cup (handicap), received thirty nominations; the Durbam Cup, seven; Michaelmas Handicap, forty-seven; Pheasant Plate, thirty-three; the Grey stakes, thirty-two and the Ontario Jockey Club Cup (handicap), thirty-four.

YEARLINGS SHIPPED TO KENTUCKY.

Lexington, Ky., August 24.—The yearlings purchased at Saratoga by John Ireland, Charles F. Grainger and J. S. Stoll have arrived here. The yearlings bought by Mr. Grainger will be sent on to Louisville. They are to be raced in the colors of S. Miller Henderson next spring. The youngsters purchased by Mr. Stoll are all fillies and are uttimately intended to go into the stud at The Meadows, but they will be raced in the colors of George Stoll, the owner of Dutch Barbara.

M'CARTER IS ALL RIGHT AGAIN.

Saratoga, Ne Y., August 24.—McCarter, the Newcastle Stable's Futurity candidate, has recovered from his recent indisposition and, on the authority of trainer Tom Welch, is a probable starter in the big Coney Island fixture.

JOHN M. P. WORKS WELL AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—John M. P., Grant Hugh Browne's steeplechasers, purchased in England last spring for $15,000, worked a first-class trial over the short steeplechase course this morning.

PINKERTONS BLOCK ANOTHER SCHEME.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—The Pinkerton men are congratulating themselves on having nipped another bright scheme of the poolroom men in the bud. The telescope which was mounted on the observation pole outside of the track was closely watched, and it was found that instead of being turned toward the track it was pointed in the opposite direction. It was also found that placards bearing the numbers of the winners were being displayed from the pole after each race.

numbers of the winners were being displayed from the pole after each race.

Putting two and two together, they concluded that the news was being telephoned from some distant house, and by tracing the line of sight of the telescope they found a house over a mile distant equipped with a similar telescope, by which the numbers displayed on the pole were being read. By permission of the telephone people the wires leading into this house were cut, and in consequence no information of importance got to the rooms today.

NO VACANT STALLS AT WINDSOR.

Detroit, Mich., August 24.—All the available stable room at the Windsor track has been taken. Over 800 horses are quartered there. Seven well-filled races, with fields that are evenly balanced, make up the card for the opening day. The Saratoga recruits are the horses of Green B. Morris, A. C. McCafferty, Phil Chinn, Dr. Rowell and Charles Bowman, and they are all fit and ready to race. It will be the first time that good horses from the east have come to the Canadian track to measure strides with the northern campaigners. The indications are that the track for the cpening day will be heavy.

Jockey Cherry arrived here today from Saratoga and will accept mounts during the meeting.

JOCKEY BELL LOSES HIS LICENSE.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—The stewards of the Jockey Club met at the clubhouse today and, acting on the recommendation of the stewards of the Brighton meeting, revoked jockey Bell's license. Bell had been suspended by the Brighton officials for a bad ride on Bobbie Kean.

M'GIBBEN SAYS HE WILL NOT PAY.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—Robert McGibben, the clubhouse betting commissioner, on whom the burden of making good $5,000, claimed as a wager made on Wes with W. Cowan for the account of J. W. Gates last Monday, declares that he will not pay it.

THE WINNERS OF THE UNITED STATES HOTEL STAKES.

The United States Hotel Stakes started in turf history as a mile and a half stake race for three-yearolds and as such fell to such grand racers as Luke Blackburn, Hindoo, Drake Carter, Inspector B., Hanover and Sinaloa II., was then reduced in distance and finally discontinued, but was revived when the Whitney regime came into power at Saratoga and made a $10,000 guaranteed stake for two-year-olds.

DON DOMO WEAKENS AT END.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH TO TAKE THE MEASURE OF MARTHA GORMAN.

Bluemint Wins the Steeplechase—Santon Has a Tight Fit—Morendo Spoils a Coup With Gamester—Jockey Grasen Rides.

Cincinnati, O., August 24.—Today's card at Latonia was made up mainly to give the cheaper horses an opportunity to earn feed money. The exception was the third race at six furlongs in which Martha Gorman and Don Domo measured strides and produced a stirring contest. These two were thought to have the race between them and were accorded nearly all the support. Don Domo, running at his best, assumed a long lead, but in the stretch began to weaken, permitting the Respess filly to overhaul him. In a terrific drive she outlasted the gray horse and landed the purse in the final stride. Miltiades was a distant third and Evajean, the only other starter, never was a contender.

other starter, never was a contender.

The steeplechase, which was mainly responsible for the big crowd, resulted in one of the best contests of this kind witnessed in some time. The field was a bad one, but all fenced in good style with the exception of War Chief, which came to grief at the last field jump. Bluemint showed surprising improvement and won as his rider pleased from Wool Dealer. Dalesman and Weird were always outpaced and distanced at the finish.

John C. Ferriss essayed a coup with Gamester in the second race and failed to bring it off successfully because of Griffith's poor ride. His stable rider, D. Boland, was on the winner, Morendo, which nosed Gamester out at the finish. Griffith was also responsible for the defeat of Savoir Faire, which was much the best in the sixth race, but

In the best finish of the afternoon, Santon was returned a winner in the fifth race. He ran to his best form today and his connections are reported as having won heavily by his victory. He was bid up $400 over his entered price of $500, by S. Louis, but was retained.

Cotton & Applegate's horses will be shipped to Oakland after the close of this meeting and be rested there until the beginning of that meeting. Jockey Grasen was given permission to ride today by starter Holtman and had the mount on Flasco.

by starter Holtman and had the mount on Fiasco, in the fifth race. The statement that the boy had ridden in Austria is erroneous. He had only been exercising horses there. The boy does not speak a word of English, but converses fluently in German. In conversation he stated that he had only been in this country three weeks, was born in Dresden, and is twenty years old. He can ride at ninety pounds and many horsemen are of the opinion that he possesses merit that will some day bring him to the front as a good race rider.

Jockey C. Morris incurred Holtman's displeasure

Jockey C. Morris incurred Hollman's displeasure during the afternoon and was fined $25 in the second race, $50 in the fifth race and suspended for six days for bad behavior in the sixth. Dr. Talbot left tonight for Louisville, where he

SHARPERS "FIRST PAST" THE LAYERS.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—A smart gang has found a system of getting money here that does away with the trouble of picking winners. The betting ring is about a furlong from the finish and at an angle that in a close finish makes it difficult to say who has won. As a consequence the bookmakers bet heavily as to the result until the numbers are displayed. The game worked by the schemers is to have one of their crowd pretty close to the finishing line and the instant the horses pass the mark he signals the result. His confederates have been betting and reaping a harvest. Their plan was uncovered a day or two ago and in future any betting they do will be with some of the green ones, for the regulars have passed around a general blacklist.

JOCKEY M'KINNEY TAKES A WIFE.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 24.—Steeplechase jockey MoKinney surprised his friends last night at Fort Erie by marrying Miss Perrett, sister of jockey Perrett, now riding at Latonia.

WANT OAKLEY TRACK FOR FACTORIES.

Cincinnati, O., August 24.—The Factory Colony Company is about to close a deal whereby it becomes the owner of the Oakley racetrack grounds, composed of 108 acres. Glen Brown, the real estate broker, yesterday returned from the east, having in his possession an option signed by O. A. Jones and A. J. Welsh. which was made out at Saratoga on August 18. The contract provides that in the event of the option being exercised the present owners are to have the right to conduct a trotting meeting on the track next October. Glen Brown last night stated that the directors of the Colony Company would undoubtedly accept the option before the expiration of another week. The owners want $185.000, or about $1.723 an acre, for the entire tract, which contains an immense grandstand, a large clinbouse, a big steel betting ring and stables, with $00 stalls.

The number of inquiries which have been coming into the Factory Colony Company for space at Oakley caused it to look about for adjoining pieces. If the racetrack is purchased, this, in addition to the 122 acres already in its hands, would make a plot of ground of 236 acres, all in one piece, and almost perfectly level.

Messrs, Jones & Welsh, the owners of the racetrack, have been receiving a good income from the property, and heretofore rejected all advances for the sale of the property. The Cincinnati Golf Club has a lease on the grounds under certain conditions, which amounts to $1,500 per annum.

FORTUNE SMILES ON VAN DUSEN.

"Charley Van Dusen is considered about the luckiest owner at the Meadows, but it is not all luck with the ex-jockey," says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. "Van Dusen has bought several of the best porses at the track and is doing well with them. He took over Baker, and since that time Baker has improved wonderfully in his work. He has run in the money on every occasion since, in the blue and white striped jacket of the Van Dusen stable. Supreme Court was about the best purchase of the year at the Meadows. He was in a selling race in Zeke Abrams' colors, and Van Dusen bid him up. He got him at $1,000, and the next time out he won a stake race with him. In that race he clipped off the mile and fifty yards in 1:41½, the best time made in America this year. He next took the Fairbanks handicap, and in less than two weeks has won for his owner more than his purchase price in stakes alone."

NO RACE MEETING; SIMPLY YEARLING TRIAL

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—Barney Schreiber will give a racing matinee and barbecue to his friends and neighbors at his Woodlands faram near Bridgeton this fall, just to show the Missourians that the thoroughbred will not down despite the oppressive measures in force to kill racing. All of Schreiber's yearlings will be simply tried out under colors before being shipped to California to race. It is unnecessary to say that there will be no betting.

Dispatches from St. Louis this morning were in error in stating that a meeting of five days would be held at the Schreiber farm.

MAJOR WHEELER IS STRICKEN.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—Major C. C. Wheeler, who twenty years ago was judge at Brighton Beach and other racetracks, and one of the most capable turt writers in the country, has been stricken with paralysis after about a year's illness, and there is little hope for his recovery.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dandelion is getting along excellently at Saratoga.

Cottontown is being pointed for the Twin City Handicap.

The report that Tradition had been sent to Ken-tucky was a mistake. She is at Sheepshead Bay. Steeplechase jockey Davidson, who was injured by a fall at Saratoga, has been discharged from the hospital.

The stork has visited the home of George Odom a Brooklyn. The ex-jockey is the father of a ouncing boy.

Realm, says James Johnson, has run his last race on the flat. He is schooling for steeplechases and will in all probability be a starter in the Harbor Hill Steeplechase.

Hill Steeplechase.

Richard Canfield, convinced, it is said, that the good old times are forever dead, is planning to convert the most famous gambling house in America into a casino and exclusive cottage colony.

Dishabille fills the eye of John W. Rogers to the extent that after the race at Saratoga Wednesday, he remarked: "I never saw a horse I would rather bet on and I am sorry she is not in my barn."

Go Between worked an impressive mile and a quarter in 2:09$\tilde{g}$ at Saratoga Wednesday afternoon. Shaw, who will ride him today, had the mount. Sir Huon shortly afterward worked a mile and a half to 2:41$\tilde{g}$. Huon she in 2:41%.

FORT ERIE RACING STATISTICS.

The meeting of the Highland Park Club, which opened at Fort Erie on July 10 and closed on August 22, embraced thirty-eight days of racing, during which 252 races were decided and $94,160 distributed in stakes and purses. THURSDAY. I closed up my offices Tuesday and went over to Cincinnati to fix up the deal for my clients on the above two good things and I can prove this statement: That I did not wire any clients. I don't shoot hot prove this statement: That I did not wire any clients, I don't shoot hot air when I don't have winners. John J. Ward's clients don't expect a winner every day, as they know that there never was a man born that could pick six winners a week. GET WISE. I am the ONLY MAN IN THIS BUSINESS that puts over LONG PRICE HORSES and ONLY ONE A DAY. Remember: I only wire one horse a day from Latonia, and only when I know something.
